WHEREAS initially the name proposed for the educational institute was 'Saint Teresa International School, Shillong' and accordingly it was decided to adopt the said name and it was mentioned in the Trust Deed that the Trust shall set up the educational institute by the name, 'Saint Teresa International School, Shillong';

AND WHEREAS to secure future interests of the educational institute as well as the Trust, it was decided to apply for seeking trade mark rights for the name, 'Saint Teresa International School, Shillong'.

AND WHEREAS for filing the application before the Registrar of Trade Marks, preliminary enquiries and searches were made so as to eliminate risks of objection and rejection. On such enquiries it was found that there are a number of institutes already using the name, 'Saint Teresa' and therefore there was all possibility of the application being rejected and objections raised by the users since long before. Hence it was decided not to file the application seeking right of Trade Mark as it would end in a futile exercise;
